IV. SPECIAL ITEMS

A. Project Status Report

Ms. Koonce explained the focus of the first $60 million of the Bond is on Tahquitz High and Rancho Viejo Middle Schools. Ms. Koonce reviewed the Cottonwood School Master Plan and Hemet High School Phases I and II. She said they are planning to redesign the Hemet High School parking as it is creating issues with the buses and pedestrians. The portables will be replaced and designed away from the main building. Construction will begin the end of 2008.

B. Financial Report

Ms. Brightman explained the summary page stating that money was transferred from Page Ranch and Currie Ranch to the sites where the need is right now. The money will be replaced when the next series of bonds are sold. Rancho Viejo Middle School budget will go down when state funding is received. The District can apply for state funds only after 60% of the budget is under contract. She went on to explain the site pages and expense reports.

V. ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.
